MY WAY

The chronology is the same as on the poster (My way). Please hang the poster at your home. If your child sees the picture, it will be animated to stick it on.

Information for parents for a successful start into kindergarten

More languages:

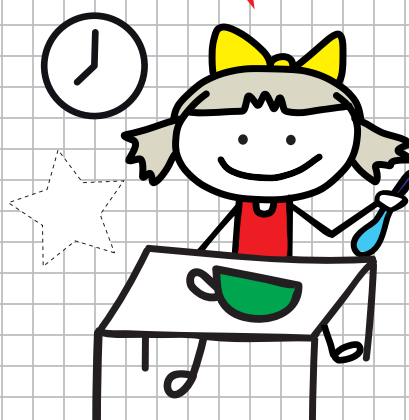

I can wash my hands and blow my nose by myself.

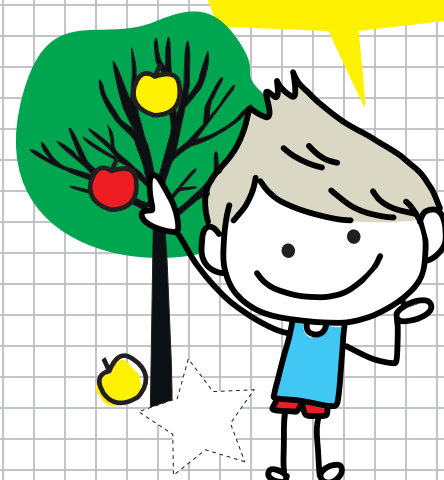

I can handle my toys with care and know that play includes tidying up afterwards.

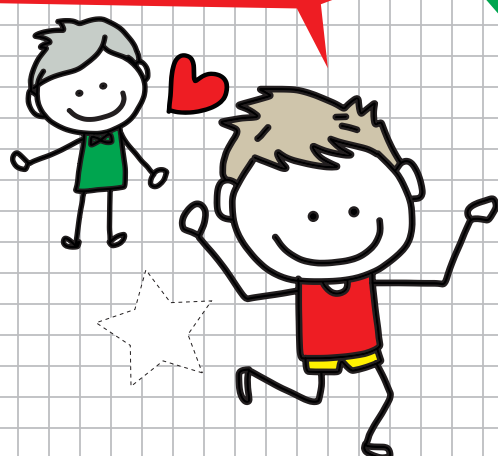

I have eaten breakfast before going to kindergarten.

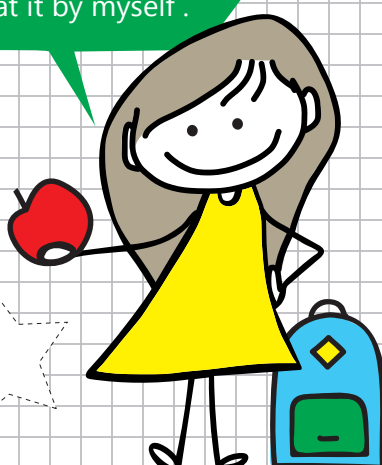

I can understand and follow rules.

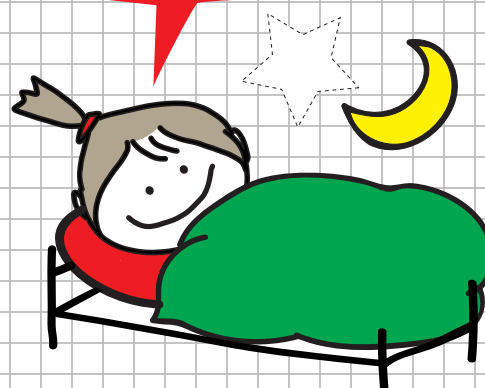

I can say goodbye to my parents at the kindergarten entrance door and enter kindergarten by myself (starting from the first day of kindergarten).

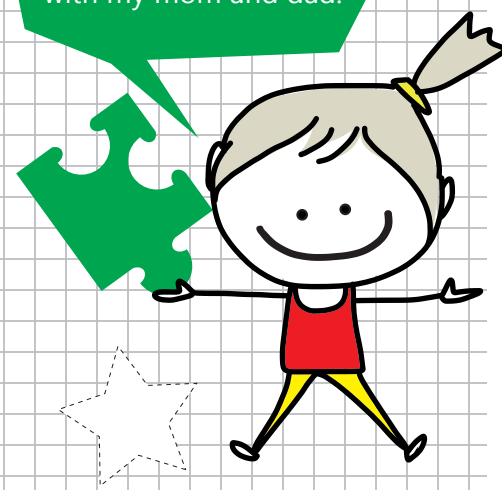

I can unpack my morning snack (fruits, bread, nuts) and eat it by myself.

I am well rested in the morning and receptive (undisturbed night sleep of at least 10 to 12 hours).

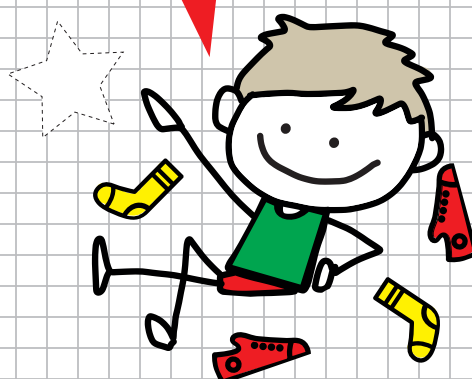

I am allowed to play cards or puzzles with my mom and dad.

I can get in contact with other children and solve conflicts without violence.

I can dress and undress myself (e.g. jacket, reflection band, hand gloves, cap, sport, clothes etc.).

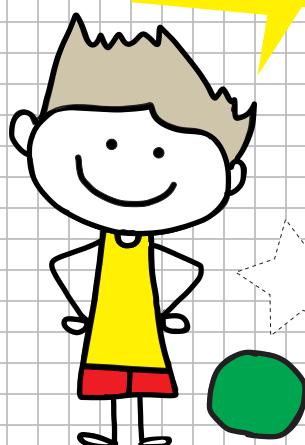

I don't need to wear diapers during the day.

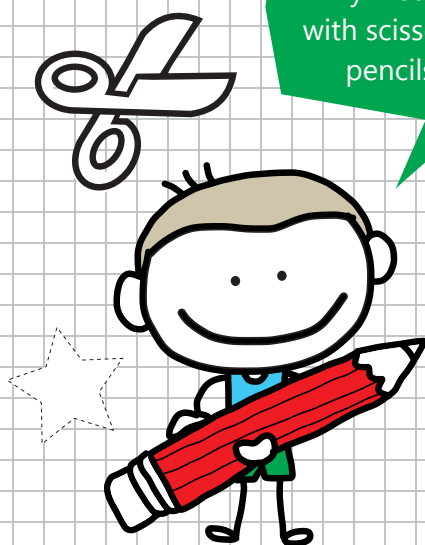

I know when I have to go to the toilet and can do this by my own.

I understand German a little bit.

I am allowed to have my first experience with scissors, glue and pencils at home.

I can express my needs.

I can go outdoors daily. This way I learn how to run, climb and balance.
